Ref: G.O. No. MS. 2395 PH. dated 18-10-1944.

--

In the G.O. referred to above the Government have approved the proposal to get the soiled linen of the Government Hospital, Udipi washed on contract basis and accepted the tender rates of dhoby John Lewis for washing the soiled linen of the hospital at Rs.11/- for 100 pieces of clothes and Re1/- for 50 yards of gauze. Fresh tenders were called for in November 1945 by the Medical Officer, Government Hospital, Udipi for washing the linen. Only one tender from dhoby John Lewis was received and his rates are given below:

P/1/6/46

1. Washing of 100 pieces of clothes Rs.11/-
2. ,, 50 yards of gauze cloth Re.1/-

The market rate in the locality is reported to be Rs. 6-4-0 and Re. 1-8-0 respectively. The tenderer is not willing to reduce his rate to the amount reported by the Tahsildar. No dhoby is also available to be appointed as a whole time servant in the hospital.

In the circumstances stated above it is requested that the Government will be pleased to accept the tender rate of John Lewis referred to above for washing the soiled linen of the Government Hospital, Udipi up to 31-3-1947.

Your obedient servant,

B. Kuttabba
